Volunteer Spotlight: Judy Bohnsack

Our beloved client advocate, Judy Bohnsack, came to volunteer at Crossroads Pregnancy Center approximately three years ago. Judy says not only has she enjoyed encouraging her clients as mothers “especially in an era when abortion is considered just another form of birth control,” but that she also enjoys spending time with CPC staff and volunteers. One reason Judy chose to become involved in CPC ministry is because of her conviction that abortion is the killing of a baby who is a “human being who lives inside another human,” rather than a blob of tissue as many may suppose.

Judy has been married to Phil since 1978. They have two sons, Eric (Vicky) and James (Melanie), and have five grandchildren: Alex, Aidan, Asa, Asher and Olive. Judy is a retiree from Kings Christian School after teaching first grade for sixteen years which she loved. Judy and Phil attend Koinonia Church in Hanford.

Judy has a sweet salvation story which she shares: “I was raised going to church but was never encouraged to ask Jesus to be my Savior. At age 30, as I was dusting in our study, I said, 'OK, Jesus, I believe You are real and You are who the Bible says You are.' I literally felt something in my heart, like a key turning in a lock. I looked around to see if any books fell off the shelf! Later, as I was watching a movie called Godspell, I cried and cried and cried. From then on, I knew Jesus was my Savior.”

Judy’s favorite Bible verse is Hebrews 13:5: “I will never leave thee nor forsake thee.” Of that verse, Judy says it is “certainly a very comforting promise for one sitting across from a young and needy client and wanting to help bring God’s truths to light for her.”

A few of Judy’s favorite things:

Food: Cheese Omelet
Candy: Chocolate
Book of the Bible: Gospel of John
Vacation Spot: Grandkids’ house
Hobbies: Crossword puzzles; Soduku

We appreciate you, Judy, and your sweet servant’s heart. I always thank my God for you because of His grace given you in Christ Jesus. (1 Cor 1:4)
